We regret very much that we were not able to send your entire order. Your bills will show that you have not been charged for the goods left out.

Because of a very large demand, our entire supply of some goods has been sold, but in some cases we expect a new supply later.

If we have stated on the bills that we will have a new supply, we shall be glad to have you send us an entirely new order for these goods, using the blank on the other side of this letter. It would be well to give both a first and second choice.
